

Penny Pincher Posse!

Introducing Penny's Penny Pincher Posse!

Find a Penny, pick it up, and all day long have good luck! Penelope (aka Penny) and her posse of kitties are cats about town! Penny, the Library's orange kitty mascot, along with her clowder of cats will be hiding around town starting in September. If you find Penny or a member of her posse just return them to the Library and pick a Penny Pincher prize! All ages are welcome to become a member of the Penny Pinchers!

We have purchased only so many kittens, and once they are gone and not returned to the Library, the program will be over. If you find a kitty, keep the game going by returning it to the Library for a prize! All returned kitties will be released back into the "wild" to be found and returned again so more prizes can be won.

In the News!

We are excited to share Nathan Simpson's news! You can now search and browse through nearly 100 years of Times-Virginian newspapers. From local sports and obituaries to town events and Father Darkleaf columns. It's the closest thing we have to a time machine for Appomattox.

This is something Nathan Simpson has been working on for a long time, and it's finally live. Special thanks to the Town of Appomattox for funding the digitization of the newspaper, and the Appomattox Historical Society for providing the microfilm. Public access to our local history matters, and they made it happen.

You can search names, dates, events, or just poke around and see what you find. It's completely free to the public. It's best viewed on a computer, and hasn't been tested to work on a mobile device.

Library Waves Goodbye to Summer

The Library waves goodbye to summer as the school year starts and the 2025 Summer Reading Program "Color Our World" has come to an end.

On Tuesday, July 29th, the Library hosted a "Wave Goodbye to Summer Party" in Abbitt Park! We surprised those who showed up with a huge dolphin water slide, crocheted reusable water balloons, squirt guns, sidewalk chalk drawing, snow cones, games, bubbles, tie-dying, and guest vendors. Even Bruce the great white shark swam outside to join the fun!
