Report of the Librarian - Cindy Scheu

- Summer Reading Program was a success; we had a 22% increase in participation this year
- Outreach Opportunities
 - o Past
 - Hillcat Baseball game
 - Wolfswood Faire
 - School Open Houses – Superintendent had information table at each about the library
 - o Upcoming
 - American Legion Chili and Cheer
 - Holliday Lake Fall Festival
 - CVCC Student Appreciation Picnic (main campus)
 - Good Neighbor Senior Fair
- Grants
 - o We received the Flight Path Grant – still waiting on the check from them
 - o We did not receive the Books UnBanned but they did send us a swag bag that we are going to use as a prize during Banned Books Week in October.
 - o We are applying for the Infinite Sums Rural & Small Libraries Cohort Grant Program – This grant is designed to instill the love of math across communities by offering money to host community-side events for Pi Day, Infinity Day and Fibonacci Day in 2026.
- Weeding
 - o Adult fiction weeding is progressing well – we are weeding massive amounts of books as the shelves were overfull and many books had not been checked out in more than five years.

- Adult non-fiction was temporarily postponed
- Harwood
 - Rich Harwood came to the library on August 21st for a professional development for our staff and for a community development meeting.
- Railroad Day Closings/Activities
 - We will be close October 10-11 for Railroad Day.
 - We will be doing a professional development activity that day – field trip to Cumberland County Public Library, Midlothian Public Library and the Library of Virginia.
 - Library will be participating in in the Railroad day parade on Oct. 11
